

The Centre for Interuniversity Research “Ezio Tarantelli” (CIRET) with the support of the Bank of Italy organizes a conference on:

CAUSES AND CONSEQUENCES OF INEQUALITY AND SOCIAL MOBILITY: WHAT CAN BE DONE?

*Faculty of Economics, Sapienza University of Rome
September 25th-26th*

AULA BIANCHI BANDINELLI – Via A. Scarpa 16, Roma

(No pre-registration needed)

FRIDAY 25th : 9:30am-1:00pm

Welcome addresses

Giuseppe Ciccarone, Carole Beebe Tarantelli, Maurizio Franzini

INEQUALITY IN THE LABOUR MARKET

Chair: Tito Boeri

“Disappearing Routine Jobs: An Establishment-Level Analysis”
Matias Cortes (University of Manchester), Andrea Salvatori (ISER, Essex)

“Changing Career Prospects for Young Workers and the Decline in Routine Employment”

Matias Cortes (University of Manchester), Paolo Naticchioni (University of Roma Tre), Giuseppe Ragusa (Luiss), Claudia Vittori (Sapienza, University of Rome),

“Job polarization in the UK: another look”

John Muellbauer (Nuffield College, Oxford), Annalisa Cristini (University of Bergamo)

DISCUSSION

Coffee break

“Welfare Economics of Education When Signaling and Credit Constraints Coexist”

Marcello D'Amato (University of Salerno), Dilip Mookherjee (Boston University)

"What if your boss is a woman? Work organization, work-life balance and gender discrimination at the workplace"

Claudio Lucifora (University Cattolica of Milan)

DISCUSSION

"Inequality and labour market performance: a macroeconomic analysis"

Sergio Destefanis, Roberto Iorio (University of Salerno), Giuseppe Mastromatteo (University Cattolica of Milan)

"Income Inequality differences across countries: Assessing the role of policy, labour market and demographic factors"

Denisa Maria Sologon (LISER, Luxembourg), Philippe Van Kerm (LISER, Luxembourg), Cathal O'Donoghue (Unu-Merit)

DISCUSSION

lunch

FRIDAY 25th: 2:30pm-7:00pm

INTERGENERATIONAL TRANSMISSION OF INEQUALITY

Chair: Elena Granaglia

"Early Years Policy in the UK: did it deliver for disadvantaged children?"

Jo Blanden (University of Surrey) Emilia Del Bono, S. McNally, and B. Rabe (ISER, Essex)

"Too many children left behind"

Miles Corak (University of Ottawa)

"Lifetime intergenerational economic mobility in the UK: evidence and policy"

Paul Gregg (University of Bath), Lindsey Macmillan (IOE, London), Claudia Vittori (Sapienza University of Rome)

"Intergenerational mobility in the very long run: Florence 1427-2011"

Sauro Mocetti and Guglielmo Barone (Bank of Italy)

DISCUSSION

"Ability and background rewarding in non competitive markets"

Maurizio Franzini, Fabrizio Patriarca, Michele Raitano (Sapienza, University of Rome), Francesco Vona (OFCE, Paris)

“Income Inequality and Opportunity Inequality in Europe: Recent Trends and Explaining Factors”

Vito Peragine (University of Bari), Daniele Checchi (University of Milan), Laura Serlenga (University of Bari)

“From the Cradle to the Grave: the effect of family background on career path of Italian men”

Francesco Vona (OFCE, Paris), Michele Raitano (Sapienza, University of Rome)

DISCUSSION

SOCIAL DINNER 8:30pm “Casa dell’Aviatore”

SATURDAY 26th: 9:30am-1:00pm

INEQUALITY: WHAT CAN BE DONE?

Chair: Maurizio Franzini

“Inequality: What can be done?”

Anthony Atkinson (University of Oxford)

DISCUSSION

“A Stress Test of the Welfare State”

Tito Boeri (Bocconi University Milan and INPS)

“A feasible unemployment-based shock absorber for the euro area”

Andrea Brandolini, Francesca Carta, Francesco D’Amuri (Bank of Italy)

DISCUSSION

coffee break

“Raising minimum income floors: incrementalist and innovative pathways through the glass ceiling”

Ive Marx (Antwerp University)

“Why policy makers do not act on inequality”

Mario Pianta (University of Urbino);

“Building and using skills in segmented labour markets: the way forward”

Stefano Scarpetta (OECD).

DISCUSSION AND FINAL REMARKS